Hospital

Looks like you've woken up.
You're going to be alright now.

That's good to hear.

This is... a hospital?
Why am I in a place like this?

You hit your head in a traffic accident and were brought here. Your memories may be confused.

Huh?

No, just now... I thought I heard some kind of sound...
Maybe it was just my imagination.....

Please continue to rest for a while.
Well then.

That nurse was really cute...
Wait, what am I even thinking!?

3 days later

This will be your bed.

Yes, please lie down over here.

I'll leave your medicine here.

I hope you get better soon.

Eh!?
You're already trying to stand up?

That's fine. Here,
hold onto me.

Mmm, men really are heavy after all...

There! You managed to stand up.
Feel free to call me anytime.

A close-up of a pink-haired anime nurse character with large, expressive eyes, wearing a white nurse's cap with a red cherry blossom emblem and a white uniform. She is looking directly at the viewer with a slight smile. The background is a blurred hospital room with shelves and medical equipment.

Being able to get this close every day is bliss!

6 days later

An anime-style illustration of a hospital room. A male doctor with black hair and glasses, wearing a white lab coat over a black shirt, stands on the left. A female nurse with pink hair, wearing a white nurse's uniform and cap with a red cross, stands on the right. They are both looking towards a hospital bed in the foreground, which is covered with a white sheet. The room has a high ceiling with many pipes and fluorescent lights. The text "You seem to be recovering quite well." is written in green with a black outline above the doctor. The text "Things are going smoothly." is written in pink with a black outline above the nurse.

You seem to be recovering quite well.

Things are going smoothly.

What is this... strange feeling...?

A pink-haired anime nurse with a white cap featuring a red cherry blossom. She is wearing a white nurse's uniform with a pink stripe on the sleeve. She is looking upwards with a slight smile. The background is a grey, industrial-looking ceiling with pipes and lights.

It feels like I have to look up at her more than before...

Please continue resting a little longer. Well then.

I'll prepare the bed.

Please call me
if you need anything.

Huh? You think I've gotten taller?
I don't think people grow that suddenly...
Want to stand and compare?

Hold onto my shoulders.
There we go.

You're right! Just like you said, we're almost the same height now.

Our eye levels are almost the same...
Can something like this really happen...?

Day 3
4'7" → 4'11"
140cm → 150cm

Girls grow in height, style and ability!

But boys stay the same!

Our eye levels are almost the same...
Can something like this really happen...?

That's fine. Here,
hold onto me.

Understood.

You'll be discharged in a week.
Make the preparations.

I'll sit beside you.

Small girls outgrow boys!

Girls grow after growth!

I can only see her chest!?
Is this view really going to end soon...?

Huh? You want me to come even closer?

It seems to have been temporary,
This is a story for tall women,
breast expansion, and real GTS lovers!

That's good to hear.
