Yuzu and Ritsu commit;

GinTasaki

Character Profiles

A full-time employee (25) at a major data center. He is cheerful and friendly, though he tends to unconsciously get a little too close to people. He is self-conscious about his short stature.

After a long history of missed connections dating back to high school, he and Ritsu finally start dating.

Yuzuru Honda

While he wants to do things typical of a couple, he is still terrified of being disliked.

A deeply devoted guy who finds happiness just by looking at Ritsu.

A brusque and socially awkward systems engineer (27). Currently on assignment at Yuzuru's workplace. He appears cool on the surface, but inwardly he's a wimp.

He opened up a heart that had been closed for years and became Yuzuru's lover.

He is hopelessly clueless when it comes to romance.

Ritsu Iikawa

Deep down, he actually enjoys being constantly led around by Yuzuru. He just wishes they'd hold off on the public displays of affection for now.
