CAUTION

This doujinshi is intended for adult consumption only. This story is a derivative work drawing from Vanripper's indie game Helltaker and Examtaker DLC, and is not produced in whole or in part by the original developer, publisher, or any other associated party.

This is a doujinshi for people with open minds, laced with spoiler-filled headcanon, commentary on game events, musings on the ethical frameworks held by demonic lifeforms, and all sorts of various fetishes.

If you do not like the content, find it too different from the game, etc., I will not be reading your complaints at this time.

CHARACTERS

HELLTAKER

Human. A gentle giant as stubborn as he is muscled. Upon returning from Hell, he endeavored to spend several days on dates with each of his demon girls to understand them better. Today's date is with Justice. He is aware she is blind.

JUSTICE

Former High Prosecutor of Hell. While blind, she is a fun-loving, happy-go-lucky, and forgiving demon. She has not particularly overthought today's date.
